

Abstract Submission Information

To submit an abstract for consideration please follow the instructions below.

Abstracts

The word limit for the abstract is 300 words.

Presenter Photo and Presenter Biography

Please submit a jpeg photo and a short biography about yourself for inclusion in the program and conference promotion.

Lectures and workshops

The following resources will be available for oral presentations and workshops: Laptop with MS PowerPoint software, data projector and screen. Equipment for practical hands-on workshops will also be available and can be discussed further if Abstract is accepted.

Deadline for submission

The deadline for submitting an abstract is 5th April 2024.

Publication

Successful abstracts will be published in the AcNZ website and the 2024 Conference Program. Photos and Biographies will also feature in the Conference Program and in advertising for the Conference.

Conditions

Abstracts, oral presentations, and workshops must not contain any kind of advertising.

Presentation Formats

There are two presentation formats to choose from:

Workshop presentations

Workshops encourage active involvement of participants. The workshop should be designed as an interactive session. Workshops can run for 90 min (1.5 hrs) or 180 min (3 hours).

Workshop abstracts should be structured as follows: Background, Objectives, Workshop format, and Expected outcomes. Maximum 300 words.

Lecture/Oral Presentations

Oral presentations have a duration of 45 -60 minutes.

Please allow time for questions at the end of the presentations. For smooth running of the programme please ensure question time is completed within the allotted time.

Selection Criteria

All abstracts will be considered based on the information in the submission and will be assessed according to the following criteria:

- Originality of the work
- Quality of the abstract, including a clear connection between the issue being addressed, the work undertaken, the outcomes of the work and implications for the profession.
- Priority will be given to submissions that present original work, link to evidence, and demonstrate innovation and critical thinking.

NOTE: Abstracts promoting commercial products or services will not be accepted. Those who wish to promote a product or service are invited to contact the conference organisers for the Sponsorship Prospectus.

All submissions are to be emailed to nzra@acupuncture.org.nz
