William Wong Doo Award 2020

Nominations are called for the 2020 William Wong Doo Award.

The award was established in 2012 in the name of the founding member of the Acupuncture NZ Mr William Wong Doo, to recognise those members who have made an outstanding contribution to the profession.

The NZ School of Acupuncture and TCM was the sponsor until 2014 when it transferred to Acupuncture NZ. The previous recipients were Tim Haiselden 2012, Kevin Plaisted 2013, Tracey Bourner 2014, Peter O'Connell 2015, Adejola Olatunji 2016, Jenny Allison 2017, Lesley Haiselden 2018, and Debra Betts 2019.

The successful 2020 recipient will be announced at the Acupuncture NZ AGM on August 8.

I would like to nominate to receive the 2020 William Wong Doo Award.

I feel that this member deserves the William Wong Doo Award because

(Please outline the contribution this person has made to the profession either here in New Zealand or internationally. What makes your nominee stand out above their peers?)
