

William Wong Doo Award 2021

Nominations are called for the 2021 William Wong Doo Award.

The award was established in 2012 to annually recognise a member who has made an outstanding contribution to the profession. The award is named in honour of William Wong Doo, the founding member of Acupuncture NZ.

Previous recipients have been; Tim Haiselden 2012, Kevin Plaisted 2013, Tracey Bourner 2014, Peter O'Connell 2015, Adejola Olatunji 2016, Jenny Allison 2017, Lesley Haiselden 2018, Debra Betts 2019 and Jin Hong Thomas Lin 2020.

The successful 2021 recipient will be announced at the Acupuncture NZ Conference dinner on August 14.

I would like to nominate to receive the 2021 William Wong Doo Award.

I feel that this member deserves the William Wong Doo Award because

(Please outline the contribution this person has made to the profession either here in New Zealand or internationally. What makes your nominee stand out above their peers?)

Nominated by : (name) (signature)

Nominations to be forwarded to the Acupuncture NZ Office, P O Box 14106, Kilbirnie, Wellington 4241 or save, complete and email to nzra@acupuncture.org.nz by the close of business on 23 June 2021